

MISSION | VISION | VALUES

Provide satisfaction to our customers by offering quality solutions for energy and data transmission systems to their moving machinery.

Being the global reference as main supplier for these solutions.

To build the leading company providing intelligent solutions for energy and data transmission systems that keep our customers' vital business moving.

The Conductix-Wampfler team shares common personal and professional values such as Honesty, Integrity, Dedication to Quality, Safety and Respect for People and the Environment.